THE CLEVELAND JET CENTER OF CUYAHOGA COUNTY AIRPORT (CGF) OPENS FOR BUSINESS 2008-2009

Cleveland, OHIO/December 11, 2008/ BUSINESS AVIATION INDUSTRY NEWS/

The Cleveland Jet Center (CGF), Cleveland's premier new luxury fixed-base operator, has joined the Avfuel network of branded FBOs to offer the AVTRIP rewards program and participate in nationwide promotions. The partnership links The Cleveland Jet Center to Avfuel's broad audience of thousands of flight departments and well over 40,000 AVTRIP active member pilots. This FBO plans to start fueling operations before the New Year.

"Avfuel is pleased to be allied with this FBO. The Cleveland Jet Center unites up-to-the-minute offerings with extensively experienced aviation professionals," said Marci Ammerman, Avfuel's director of marketing. "The Cleveland Jet Center is sure to make a big impression in the general aviation community of Northeast Ohio."

Located at the Cuyahoga County Airport (CGF), The Cleveland Jet Center is only twenty minutes by car from downtown Cleveland. As home to the one-and-only Rock and Roll Hall of Fame and Museum, as well as numerous Fortune 500 companies and a string of high-end shopping and dining options, Cleveland is a vibrant American city that attracts both business and leisure travelers.

"The Cleveland Jet Center will certainly fill the area's need for a high-end full-service FBO. I think people in this region want both the convenience and charm of an FBO that offers both an attractive and productive environment," says Hospitality and Marketing Manager, Ryan DiVita.

The Cleveland Jet Center sets new standards for hospitality services, aircraft support, competitive fuel pricing, safety and security. With access to state-of-the-art security and 24 hour service, both based and transient GA customers can rest assured that their investments are safe, private and protected. Staffed with a knowledgeable team to ensure that customers enjoy world class service and unflagging attention to detail, The Cleveland Jet Center's stated mission is to anticipate customers' needs, wants and desires.

Amenities include an outdoor waterfall and a spacious lobby complete with executive conference rooms, Wi-Fi, a custom four-hole putting green, an elegant café and a pilots' lounge. Pilots can take advantage of two quiet rooms, each equipped with its own individual TV/DVD, and a pilot lounge with bathroom and shower. Concierge services for the arrangement of rental cars, dining and hotel reservations and even fine catering can be arranged upon request with The Cleveland Jet Center staff. Flight departments will find that everything runs smoothly at The Cleveland Jet Center, whether it is for passengers or crew. Aircraft services include de-ice, quick turns and full fueling capabilities, weather planning software and a 26,500 square foot heated hangar. A 5,102 foot runway can accommodate mid to large jets.

"We believe Avfuel shares our commitment to consistently delivering the highest quality of products, services, and facilities in a safe and efficient manner while providing an unparalleled level of service and satisfaction to every individual customer," said Robert Ward, Vice President and General Manager of The Cleveland Jet Center.
